Presidents Message:

Greetings and Happy New Year! I have served as the Vice President to the National Association of Black Narcotics Agents (NABNA) for the past 5 years. I am humbled, privileged, and honored to have been chosen to serve as the President of NABNA. I am deeply grateful to my predecessor, Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Daniel Comeaux for his dedication and leadership to NABNA. SAC Comeaux will continue to be an active member of the Executive Board. I look forward to FY 2020, by fulfilling the duties and responsibilities as your elected President.

As the President, I am joined by a very talented Executive Board: Charlotte (Washington) Barrow, Vice President; Elisabeth Brown, Secretary; Aprile Whitesell, Treasurer; Jason Bradford, Parliamentarian; Ikechi (Ikey) Chuku, Sergeant of Arms; and Corey Handy, Chaplain. I look forward to working with you to continue the rich legacy NABNA has established.

NABNA has celebrated 43 years as an organization. I am proud to say, I have been a member since 2000 and have attended every conference. I recently retired from DEA as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Office of Training and I am proud to have been given this opportunity to serve as your President. I am passionate about NABNA, I promise I will continue the leadership of NABNA. We need to apply ourselves and be committed to the future leaders of this organization and continue to donate to our scholarship fund. I would like for everyone to be proactive and to give back.

I will serve the organization and its members to the best of my ability. I look forward to seeing you all at the 43rd Annual NABNA Leadership Conference in New Orleans, LA, July 21- 23, 2020. This year's conference is designed to develop future leaders. The theme for the conference is "Leadership Starts With you...Why not you? Make your reservations now at the Westin Hotel and Resort at 800-325-3589 the group name is NABNA's 43rd Annual Training Conference.

Hope to see you there!

Karen D. Dorough-Adams
